City of Imperial to Cancel November 5, 2024 Election

On May 8, 2024, the Imperial City Council adopted a resolution calling for the General Municipal Election to be held on November 5, 2024 to elect two members to the City Council. At the close of the nomination period on August 9, 2024, only incumbents P. Roberto Amparano and Katie Burnworth filed Nomination Papers to run for office. In accordance with Section 10229 of the California Elections Code, when the number of nominees for an election does not exceed the offices to be filled, the City Council has the option to either cancel the election and appoint the nominees or proceed with an election.

On Wednesday, August 21, 2024 the Imperial City Council, during a regular scheduled meeting, took formal action to cancel the election and appoint incumbents P. Roberto Amparano and Katie Burnworth to serve full terms of four-years. The incumbents will officially be sworn into office at the conclusion of their current terms, which end in November 2024.
