Item: Mobile Food Truck Ordinance

Environmental: Categorically Exempt per Section 15268 for Ministerial Projects

Recommendation: Approval of Mobile Food Facilities Ordinance and Zoning Text Amendment

Background

According to the United States Census Bureau, California was one of the top three states in food truck sales reporting $276.1 million in 2017- an increase of 79% between 2012 and 2017. This remarkable growth highlights the booming popularity and economic impact of the food truck industry within the state.

Although there has been much interest from the public, the City currently does not have regulations for mobile food facilities. The City's Zoning Code states that land uses that are not specifically listed as permitted or prohibited, unless determined to be a use similar in development characteristics, are not permitted. Because of the amount of individuals who have demonstrated interest in operating mobile food truck businesses, the City has drafted a Mobile Food Facilities Ordinance (Attachment A) that is intended to regulate mobile food businesses and protect the health and welfare of the public. The drafted ordinance aims to provide a clear and structured framework for the operation of mobile food facilities. It outlines specific guidelines and requirements to ensure that these businesses can operate safely and efficiently while minimizing potential risks to public health and safety. By establishing this ordinance, the City seeks to balance the enthusiasm for mobile food trucks with the need to maintain orderly and safe public spaces. In essence, the new Mobile Food Facilities Ordinance is a response to both the rising trend in food truck popularity and the need for coherent and enforceable regulations. It aims to facilitate the growth of the mobile food industry in a manner that benefits both entrepreneurs and the community at large.

Prior to drafting the Mobile Food Facilities Ordinance, the City held two Mobile Food Facilities Workshops on February 5, 2024 and May 22, 2024 to provide the public an opportunity to comment on the proposed ordinance. During these meetings, participants provided several key suggestions. Participants expressed the desire for minimal fees to make it financially feasible for small business owners to enter the market. They also emphasized the importance of allowing mobile food facilities to remain stationary for extended periods, which would help vendors build a consistent customer base. Additionally, attendees requested a list of approved sites (Attachment B) and approved vendors (Attachment C) to facilitate and expedite the permitting process. There was also a call for the ordinance to allow vending in designated areas such as parks and athletic fields, and to streamline the process by issuing a single permit that would cover multiple locations.

Taking these discussions into consideration, City staff incorporated several elements from the public's feedback into the ordinance. To ensure the ordinance was practical and beneficial for vendors, City staff also consulted with the Imperial County Public Health Department. This collaboration provided valuable insights into the health regulations and application requirements, and helped establish a streamlined and collaborative process for expediting mobile food facilities' applications.

The resulting ordinance is vendor-friendly and aims to simplify the application process. It introduces a Temporary Use Permit (Attachment D) that has been designed to be affordable, eliminating any burdensome deposits that were previously required. This change makes it easier for vendors to obtain permits without significant upfront costs, thereby encouraging more entrepreneurs to start their mobile food businesses. Overall, the new ordinance reflects the community's input and aims to balance regulatory requirements with the needs and capabilities of mobile food vendors, ensuring a positive impact on both the local economy and public welfare.

Discussion

Mobile food facilities are defined as vehicles used in conjunction with a commissary or other permanent food facility upon which food is sold or distributed at retail. The first draft of the Mobile Food Facility Ordinance included two mobile food facility categories described in the chart below:

CATEGORY	ZONES ALLOWED	ALLOWED TO VEND ON PUBLIC RIGHT OF WAY	TIME LIMIT
Processing (i.e. Food Trucks)	Commercial and Industrial Zones	No	4 hours
Non-Processing (Ice cream trucks, paleteros)	Non-private property citywide	Yes	1 hour
Non-Processing (Ice cream trucks, paleteros)	Joshua Park, Anthony Redondo Park, Eager Park and CA Irvin Park	Yes	4 hours

Mobile Food Facility – Processing- A processing mobile food facility is any vehicle where foods are processed by cooking, frying and grilling. Processing mobile food facilities are the typical food truck and require a commissary. A commissary consists of an establishment with a licensed kitchen (as licensed by the Public Health Department) where food is prepared, stored, equipment is cleaned and stored, and waste is disposed of. Narrow streets, limited off-street parking, and open drains in the City present safety hazards for food trucks and the public as a whole. Open drains refer to drainage systems that are not covered or enclosed, including open ditches or trenches, stormwater drains, and gutters and channels. These open drains can lead to various issues, including health and sanitation concerns due to the potential collection of debris, waste, and hazardous materials, which can cause contamination and sanitation issues. They also pose physical hazards as tripping hazards for pedestrians and can be dangerous for vehicles, especially large ones like food trucks. Additionally, open drains can become blocked with debris, leading to waterlogging and pollution, and in the event of a fire, they can complicate firefighting efforts and might exacerbate the spread of fire if flammable materials have accumulated. Furthermore, allowing mobile food processing facilities to operate on private property without stringent regulations can lead to several challenges. These challenges include ensuring that the property is suitable and safe for food truck operations, maintaining adequate sanitation standards, and preventing potential nuisances to neighboring properties. Unregulated operation on private property can also result in conflicts with existing land uses and zoning regulations, creating complications for both property owners and the city. To address these concerns, the ordinance does not allow mobile food vendors processing food to vend from the street or any city right-of-way. Instead, the ordinance requires that these types of facilities operate with a temporary use permit, which must be issued and renewed annually. Through the temporary use permit, staff would ensure that processing mobile food facilities comply with the established regulations and are monitored for adherence to safety and health standards. The Zoning Map detailing the approved zones for Mobile Food Facilities Vending is attached as Attachment B. The vending site shall be paved and have sufficient parking to accommodate the food truck and existing uses at the property, if any. Additionally, site furniture would be limited to portable tables and chairs. If the facility will be conducting business in one location for a period longer than one hour, a restroom must be provided within 200-feet of the site.

Mobile Food Facility – Non-Processing- Mobile food facilities that are considered “non processing” involve pre-packaged foods (i.e. chips, ice cream, and candy). Examples of these types of food vendors include ice cream trucks, and paleta carts. Ice cream trucks and paleta carts are not allowed to vend from private property and are only allowed to vend from the right of way for no more than one (1) hour.

Restrictions for all Mobile Food Categories

Restrictions have been incorporated into the ordinance to ensure aesthetic concerns are addressed. Signage will be restricted and limited, as the only signage to be allowed is required to be attached on or in the mobile food facility. Wind feathers, banners and other signage is prohibited. Vehicle signage identifying directional information is also prohibited if the vehicle with the display is not used for business activities. Sound amplifying equipment is required to comply with the noise limits established in the City Code and the selling of alcohol is also prohibited. Food vendors are also not allowed to verbally solicit pedestrians or persons in vehicles.

Vending in four of the City’s public parks (Joshua Park, Eager Park, Anthony Redondo Park and CA Irvin Park) will be allowed with authorization from the Parks and Recreation Division. It is anticipated that many vendors will want to sell from City parks, thus, a clause has been incorporated that the City reserves the right to rotate vendors on a monthly basis. This rotational system ensures that multiple vendors have the chance to operate in these prime locations, providing variety to park visitors. Allowing food vendors on the sidewalks adjacent to public parks enhances the overall experience for park visitors by providing convenient access to a variety of food options. This can make park visits more enjoyable for families, individuals, and groups who spend time at these recreational areas. Food trucks on the sidewalks near parks can serve as a focal point for community gatherings and events, fostering a sense of community and encouraging social interaction among residents. This can also lead to increased use of park facilities and greater community participation in park programs and activities. By allowing vending in specific parks, the City can ensure that food vendors operate in a controlled and organized manner. This helps maintain cleanliness, order, and safety within the parks, while also providing a structured environment for vendors to conduct their business.

Planning Commission Recommendations

A public hearing before the Planning Commission was held on July 24, 2024. Mobile Food Facilities’ vendors spoke in favor of the long-awaited ordinance, but expressed the challenges the ordinance presented. After a lengthy discussion, the Commissioners revised:

- 1) The operating time limitations to allow vendors the additional time for setup and take down to eight hours, not to extend past 11:00 p.m.
- 2) Expanding the vending zones to include processing from the right of way citywide.
- 3) The fee structure to a one-time temporary use permit fee if the applicant maintains a current city business license without a lapse in coverage dates.
- 4) The language has been updated to replace “parking on a paved surface” with “parking on an all-weather road surface.”

Upon revising Ordinance per the Planning Commission’s instructions and from a question raised at the meeting, staff found it necessary to incorporate additional language to clarify the difference between a catering mobile food facility and a vending mobile food facility within the ordinance. This distinction is important because catering mobile food facilities typically serve pre-arranged events and may have different operational needs and regulations compared to vending mobile food facilities, which serve the general public from various locations.

The chart below summarizes the revisions made to the ordinance by the Planning Commission:

CATEGORY	ZONES ALLOWED	ALLOWED TO VEND ON PUBLIC RIGHT OF WAY	TIME LIMIT
Processing (i.e. Food Trucks)	Commercial and Industrial Zones	Yes	8 hours
Non-Processing (Ice cream trucks, paleteros)	Non-private property citywide	Yes	8 hours
Non-Processing (Ice cream trucks, paleteros)	Joshua Park, Anthony Redondo Park, Eager Park and CA Irvin Park	Yes	8 hours

Environmental Determination

Staff has reviewed the environmental compliance and determined that there is no possibility that the proposed ordinance may have a significant adverse effect on the environment. Therefore, the project was deemed exempt subject to Section 15268 of the CEQA Guidelines which pertains to ministerial projects.

Public Notification

The first public hearing scheduled for September 4, 2024, was duly noticed in the Holtville Tribune and Calexico Chronicle, newspapers of general circulation, on August 22, 2024.

Recommendation

Staff recommends that the City Council ratify Mobile Food Facilities Ordinance and Zoning Text Amendment.

The department shall not accept or receive any such request without the proper fee, and no fee shall be waived by the department.

Use/Cost of Consultants

The Community Development Department, at the discretion of the Community Development Director, may use or employ outside independent consultants to assist in processing applications, conduct special studies or provide expertise not available within the department.

The cost for such consultants shall be a charge against the project and is in addition to the City's fees. As consultant fees are paid, the applicant may be required to maintain the deposit at a level determined by the Community Development Director. Failure to maintain the required deposit shall result in a cessation in the processing of the subject application. The City shall return that portion of the deposit, if any, remaining at project completion. In accordance with City policy to ensure cost recovery, staff time spent on these projects will be tracked, and developers will be billed based on actual labor, material, equipment, and the indirect cost rate. The deposit amount will be maintained in a City Trust Fund account and used to pay for staff and consultant services on a time and materials basis. If the consultant's services amount exceeds the deposit, the applicant will be billed for the difference. The deposit must be maintained in the full amount as directed by the Community Development Director.

Applicant is responsible for any fees associated with the City of Imperial City Clerk's office and any department required for processing said application from the County of Imperial.

Fire Department Fees are paid and processed separately from the Community Development Department.
